

The Salvation Army- Lee County Bar Association Charitable Challenge

The Law Office of Kevin F. Jursinski, P.A. is proud to be one of the sponsors of the Salvation Army - Lee County Bar Association Charitable Challenge. This Salvation Army project is the first in a select group of charities to be included in the "Giving Back" theme for 2009 by the Lee County Bar Association.

Due to our troubled economic times, caused in part by the mortgage foreclosure crisis which has hit Lee County harder than any other county in the State of Florida, the need for support and services to those affected is great. At the same time, charitable contributions are weaker than in other years, creating more of a need for assistance.

The Salvation Army is one of the most efficient national charities, well-known for providing services to the poor and needy. To assist in this effort, please consider accepting the following challenge:

Ten (10) law firms in Lee County are challenged to pledge $2,500 to the Salvation Army. As part of their pledge, these law firms also will challenge ten (10) attorneys in Lee County to contribute $250 each to match each firm's $2,500 contribution. Full participation would result in donations totaling $55,000.00.

The Law Office of Kevin F. Jursinski, P.A. is proud to announce its donation of $2,500 to the Salvation Army in memory of the late JOE SLEE, friend of the firm and the Jursinski family and former President of the Fort Myers Rotary Club. Helping others was Joe Slee's lifelong commitment and we honor him by donating $2,500 in his name.

The Salvation Army, the Lee County Bar Association along with The Law Office of Kevin F. Jursinski, P.A. requests that ten (10) other attorneys in Lee County each donate $250 to the Salvation Army to match the firm's donation.

"Our county has been hit hard by this foreclosure crisis. For those of us in the legal profession who are involved in resolving this crisis, we need to not only provide pro bono services but assist those less fortunate with further monetary support. It's been said, 'To those to whom much is given, much is expected.' The members of our firm ask that you kindly consider accepting this challenge and making your donation to the Salvation Army."

Please place "Lee County Bar Association Charitable Challenge" in the memo line of your check, and make all donations payable to: The Salvation Army, Attn: Meg M. Geltner, 10291 McGregor Boulevard, Fort Myers, FL 33919

We thank you for coming along with us in charitable contributions to this worthy organization, in the initial fund-raising effort of our "Giving Back - 2009" theme for the Lee County Bar Association.
